

Jai Radhe Sales was established in 1999 as an unconventional distribution company with a clear focus on the global supply of high-quality pharmaceutical ingredients. Since inception, the company has been committed to delivering reliable, compliant, and cost-effective solutions to the pharmaceutical industry worldwide.

We specialize in providing complete sourcing solutions for pharmaceutical products from India, supported by strong technical expertise and regulatory assistance. By understanding evolving market needs and adopting innovative cost-optimization strategies, we have successfully created a niche for ourselves in the global pharmaceutical supply chain.

Driven by a commitment to excellence, Jai Radhe Sales continuously strives to achieve and maintain global quality standards through robust systems, process improvements, and long-term partnerships. Today, we are proud to be a truly global organization, with exports spanning across almost all continents.
